7.3 If MEL issues a Contract Note or Order Confirmation to the Client any error or omission in the content of such Contract Note or Order Confirmation must be notified to MEL within one Working Hour of its dispatch to the Client. If the Contract Note or Order Confirmation is dispatched outside of Working Hours any error or omission should be notified within the first Working Hour of the next Business Day. Thereafter the Client is deemed to have accepted the content of the Contract Note or Order Confirmation and shall not thereafter be entitled to dispute the content of the Contract Note or Order Confirmation. If the Client notifies any error or omission in a Contract Note or Order Confirmation to MEL within the applicable timeframe specified above, MEL and the Client shall use reasonable efforts, acting in good faith and a commercially reasonable manner, to attempt to resolve the difference and agree a revised Contract Note or Order Confirmation as soon as possible.

7.4 Contract Notes and Order Confirmations are to be sent by email. In exceptional circumstances and upon written request by the Client, they may be sent by post. They shall be deemed to have been received by the Client upon transmission if sent by email and two (2) Business Days from the date of posting if sent by post. Documents shall be sent to the last known email address or postal address given by each party from time to time. It is the duty of the Client to ensure that MEL has up-to-date contact information.

7.5 MEL reserves the right to reissue any Contract Note or Order Confirmation to correct any inadvertent mistake, error or omission and MEL agrees to do so promptly as soon as it comes to MEL's attention.

7.6 In any event, the Client is entitled to a copy of the Contract Note and these Terms at any time up and until the later of the termination of the Foreign Exchange Services or the Electronic Money Services or Money Remittance Services.

8. INITIAL AND VARIATION MARGIN

8.1 Any Initial Margin provided by the Client shall vest automatically in MEL on the Contract Date or in any of the circumstances set out in these Terms.

The effect of this is that any such cash comprising Initial Margin or Variation Margin, as the case may be, will not be segregated from any cash belonging to MEL and will be used by MEL in the course of its business and the Client will rank as a general creditor of MEL in respect of such cash. In the event of MEL's insolvency, the Client will only have an unsecured claim against MEL for repayment of that cash, and such claim will be subject to the exercise by MEL of any set-off rights that it may have under any agreement that MEL may enter into with the Client, or otherwise under general and applicable law.

8.2 The Client undertakes that any Initial Margin and/or Variation Margin provided by it was at the date of transfer beneficially owned by the Client and was not subject to any charge, lien or other encumbrance. The Client undertakes that it will not create or attempt to create any charge, lien or other encumbrance over the Initial Margin or any Variation Margin.

8.3 Subject to these Terms, MEL reserves the right to make an additional Margin Call at any time and on any number of occasions where there is, in the sole and absolute discretion of MEL:

- (a) A deterioration in the financial standing or creditworthiness of the Client;
- (b) Concern as to the ability of the Client to settle any of its obligations under a Contract;
- (c) A circumstance that justifies such action;
- (d) An Adverse Market Movement; or
- (e) General market conditions which lead MEL to believe that there may be an Adverse Market Movement.

8.4 An Adverse Market Movement is also deemed to occur where, in MEL's sole determination, the market rate for the Sell Currency to the Buy Currency has moved adversely on a Mark to Market Valuation.

8.5 If the Client fails to comply with any of its obligations under these Terms, the Initial Margin and any Variation Margin may be used by MEL to settle, satisfy or reduce any liabilities of the Client to MEL under these Terms including any Termination Amount and such liability shall be reduced by the amount of the Initial Margin or Variation Margin so applied.

8.6 The Initial Margin and any Variation Margin may be retained by MEL and be either used as part of the Sell Currency payable by the Client in respect to the relevant Contract or put towards a separate Contract in accordance with clause 8.5.

8.7 MEL may at its discretion upon notifying the Client or at the Client's request retain the Buy Currency on any one or more Contracts and use it towards settlement of any Initial Margin or Variation Margin or any Sell Currency required on another Contract.

8.8 MEL may at its discretion use the Initial Margin and any Variation Margin in relation to one Contract as Initial Margin or Variation Margin on another Contract with MEL where an Adverse Market Movement has caused the Initial Margin on such Contract to fall short of the Margin Rate.

8.9 In respect of clause 8.5, MEL will exchange currency at the appropriate rate where necessary.

8.10 From time to time MEL may consider and enter into different or additional Initial Margin and Variation Margin arrangements with Client and in the event there is insufficient cash in the Nominated Account or Client E-Money Account to meet any amount required to be transferred pursuant to those Initial Margin and/or Variation Margin requirements or to satisfy any obligation of Client with respect to any Contract entered into pursuant to the terms hereof, MEL may enter into margin arrangements with the Client in accordance with separate written agreements, whether in the form of a Margin Facility Agreement or otherwise. In the event of any inconsistency between the terms of those separate arrangements and the provisions hereof relating to Initial Margin or Variation Margin, the provisions of those separate agreements shall prevail.

8.11 MEL may at its sole discretion delay calling for Initial Margin or Variation Margin. Any such delay or failure by MEL in calling for Initial Margin or Variation Margin is not and should not be presumed to be a waiver of such right and furthermore, a single or partial exercise of that right is not and should not be presumed to preclude any subsequent or further exercise of that right or moreover the exercise of any other right, power or privilege of MEL pursuant to these Terms, or any other separate agreement.

Initial Margin Requirements

8.12 MEL reserves the right to require the Client to provide Initial Margin for any Contracts where MEL deems it to be necessary or prudent and may make additional Margin Calls.

8.13 With respect to Initial Margin, the Margin Rate is calculated at the relevant time (being the Contract Date in respect of the Initial Margin) as: (a) five (5)% in respect of Contracts for Major Currencies;

- (b) Between five (5) to ten (10)% in respect of Contracts for Minor Currencies as determined by MEL; or
- (c) Between ten (10) to fifteen (15)% in respect of Contracts for Exotic Currencies as determined by MEL.

8.14 MEL may change the Margin Rate without notice according to market conditions.

8.15 From time to time in exceptional circumstances, upon request from the Client on a case-by-case basis, the Board of Directors of MEL may consider different Initial Margin arrangements.

8.16 For all Forward Contracts the Client must transfer to the Nominated Account or Client E-Money Account the Initial Margin (as instructed by MEL) within one (1) Business Day of the Contract Date and the Balance by 12pm London time on the Value Date. Failure to deliver the full amount of the Sell Currency by 12pm London time on the Value Date constitutes a material breach of these Terms. Any additional Initial Margin requested by MEL pursuant to a Margin Call must be transferred by the Client to the Nominated Account or Client E-Money Account within one (1) Business Day of MEL first communicating the Margin Call to the Client.

Variation Margin Requirements

8.17 Where MEL makes a Margin Call for Variation Margin the Client must transfer to the Nominated Account or Client E-Money Account the Variation Margin within one (1) Business Day of MEL first communicating the Margin Call to the Client.

8.18 Variation Margin is required in relation to an Adverse Market Movement where the market rate for the Sell Currency to the Buy Currency has moved adversely on a Mark to Market Valuation.

8.19 If the Client requests it and it is due MEL will return the Variation Margin to the Client if there is a correction in the market which cancels out the full Adverse Market Movement but the obligation to return the Variation Margin is subject to 8.20.

8.20 MEL may, at its sole discretion, convert any Variation Margin held by MEL into Initial Margin in relation to any Contract it might hold with the Client.

9. TERMINATION OF FOREIGN EXCHANGE CONTRACTS FOR BREACH

9.1 Without prejudice to clauses 9.4 and 25.2, MEL may terminate the Foreign Exchange Services with immediate effect by notice in writing to Client if the Client commits a material breach of the Terms (other than the Money Remittance Service and Electronic Money Service terms), which in the case of a breach capable of remedy shall not have been remedied within two (2) Business Days of a notice from MEL to the Client identifying the breach and requiring its remedy. The determination as to whether any given breach of these Terms by Client constitutes a "material breach" shall be made by MEL in its sole and absolute discretion.

9.2 For Same Day Contracts, Next Day Contracts and Spot Contracts, the Client must deliver cleared funds into the Nominated Account or Client E-Money Account for the full amount of Sell Currency, less any Initial Margin or Variation Margin, pertaining to that particular Contract already held by MEL on or before 12pm London time on the Value Date, as instructed by MEL. Failure to deliver the full amount of the Sell Currency by 12pm London time on the Value Date constitutes a material breach of these Terms.

9.3 The Client agrees that MEL has the right to close out any Contract and all or any part of any other outstanding transactions with MEL and to cancel any Limit Orders or Stop Losses whenever entered into if:-

- (a) The Client fails to transfer the Sell Currency, the Balance, Initial Margin or Variation Margin to MEL or fails to pay any other amounts to MEL when due in accordance with these Terms or Client fails to pay or deliver any amounts due to MEL pursuant to any Margin Facility Agreement;
- (b) An Act of Insolvency occurs;
- (c) The Client is in material breach of these Terms (such as that detailed in this clause 9.3) or has materially breached the terms of any other agreement with MEL or any other MEL Group Company;
- (d) MEL is requested to do so by any regulatory or governmental body;
- (e) The Client notifies MEL that it does not intend to proceed with or perform any of its obligations under any Contract;
- (f) MEL considers that the Forward Contract ceases to be a MiFID Exempt Forward Contract;
- (g) Client fails to perform any obligation under these Terms and, if such failure is capable of remedy, such failure is not remedied on or before the first Business Day after MEL gives Client written notice of the same;
- (h) any representation made by Client pursuant to these Terms, the Application Form or pursuant to any other agreement entered into between MEL and Client proves to have been incorrect or untrue in any material respect when made or repeated or when deemed to have been made or repeated;
- (i) MEL considers it necessary, in its absolute discretion, to do so for its own protection, including without limitation to protect itself from any negative economic, commercial and/or reputational consequences; or
- (j) in relation to the Client or any of its affiliates, a default, event of default, termination event or any substantially similar event occurs or is declared under any other agreement of whatever nature with MEL or any MEL Group Company including any Margin Facility Agreement and any agreement entered into with MEM.

9.4 If the Client becomes aware of any event referred to in clause 9.3, it shall give MEL notice immediately.

9.5 If a Contract is terminated pursuant to this clause 9.5, the effective date of termination will be the date determined by MEL (acting in good faith) (the "Termination Date") and notified to the Client by written notice (the "Termination Notice"). The Termination Notice will include the Termination Date and the Termination Amount payable in respect of such termination, calculated in accordance with clause 9.6 below. If the Termination Amount set out in the Termination Notice is a positive amount, the Client agrees to pay MEL the Termination Amount within one (1) Business Day of MEL providing the Termination Notice. If the Termination Amount is a negative amount, MEL agrees to pay the Termination Amount to the Client as soon as reasonably practicable.

9.6 For the purposes of this clause 9.6, the "Termination Amount" shall be a net amount, in the Termination Currency, calculated by MEL in its sole discretion as of the Termination Date, as an amount equal to the aggregate of the amounts owed to MEL by the Client, which shall include any and all Losses, costs and expenses incurred by MEL in connection with the termination and including, for the avoidance of doubt any spread applied by MEL in accordance with its practices, (expressed as a positive amount) or by MEL to the Client (expressed as a negative amount) in respect of each terminated Contract and other agreement as contemplated under clause 9.9 below.

9.7 In determining the Termination Amount, MEL will convert amounts into the Termination Currency (being the currency selected by MEL for the purposes of determining the Termination Amount) at the appropriate rate where necessary.

9.8 The Client agrees that MEL's sole liability to the Client in connection with such termination and for the purposes of the Termination Amount calculation shall be to return any amounts the Client actually paid to, and were received by, MEL.

9.9 Should any of the events set out at clause 9.3 above occur, MEL may determine that an event of default or default (howsoever described) shall also occur under any other agreement entered into between Client and any MEL Group Company and MEL or that MEL Group Company, as the case may be, shall have all rights and remedies available to it thereunder (as if such event of default or other similar event (howsoever described) had been specified therein and all notices and grace periods had been given or expired). For the avoidance of doubt in relation to any Contract that is documented under or is subject to any other agreement, any termination and close-out of that Contract will be effected pursuant to that other agreement but the amounts payable shall be considered by MEL when calculating the Termination Amount hereunder.

9.10 If MEL cancels out a Contract (that is the Contract does not proceed to delivery of the Buy Currency), the Client shall be liable to MEL for any Losses and costs arising as a result of MEL having to reverse the Contract and buy the Sell Currency and sell the Buy Currency to cancel out the Contract, as calculated by MEL in its absolute discretion and including, for the avoidance of doubt any spread applied by MEL when cancelling the Contract, in accordance with its practices. Any such Losses arising must be paid by the Client to MEL within one (1) Business Day of the date that MEL cancels out the Contract or otherwise cancelling the Contract.

9.11 If MEL cancels out the Contract MEL is entitled to retain any profit, including any spread applied in accordance with clause 9.10, that may arise as result of cancelling the Contract.

9.12 In the event that the Client does not fulfil its obligations under a Contract, the Client will pay any interest charges incurred by MEL as a result of the non-fulfilment of the Client's obligations.

10. MEL LIABILITY FOR FOREIGN EXCHANGE SERVICES

10.1 Notwithstanding any other provision of these Terms, but subject to the remaining provision of this clause 10, in relation to the provision of Foreign Exchange Services under any Contract, MEL and the directors, officers, employees, contractors and agents of MEL shall not have any liability to the Client (or any person claiming under or through it) whether in contract, tort (including negligence), breach of statutory or regulatory duty or otherwise for:

- (a) any Losses arising directly from, or in connection with such Foreign Exchange Services or these Terms (except to the extent that such Losses are due to the gross negligence, wilful default or fraud of MEL or the directors, officers, employees, contractors or agents of MEL);
- (b) MEL's provision of, or the Client's use of, the calculation agent services agreed to be provided by MEL under these Terms;
- (c) any acts, omissions, or failure of any third party, including the failure of any third party platform, system, interface or other technology which MEL uses in the performance of its obligations or exercise of its rights under these Terms;
- (d) MEL's exercise of its rights under these Terms;
- (e) any indirect or consequential loss or damage, any direct or indirect loss of business or business interruption, loss of profit, anticipated savings or good will, loss of agreements or contract, loss of use or corruption of data or information, any loss arising out of the lawful termination of these Terms.

10.2 The parties agree that this clause 10 represents a fair and equitable position. Nothing in these Terms will exclude or limit any duty or liability which may not be excluded or limited under applicable law or regulation.

10.3 The Client will indemnify and hold harmless MEL in respect of all Losses (including reasonable legal costs) suffered by MEL and arising from any act or omission of the Client in breach of its obligations under these Terms.

10.4 The maximum amount of liability of MEL with respect to Foreign Exchange Services relating to each Contract shall not exceed the Mark to Market Valuation of such Contract as at the date the liability arose.

11. FOREIGN EXCHANGE SERVICES DISPUTES

11.1 If a dispute arises between MEL and the Client at any time with respect to the Foreign Exchange Services, MEL may take any reasonable action which it deems necessary and appropriate with respect to the Contract, including closing out any Contract. Where practicable MEL will provide Client with notice prior to taking any such action and agrees in good faith to consult with Client to endeavour to promptly resolve any such dispute in good faith.

11.2 Resolution of a dispute may involve reference to electronic recordings, transcripts of those recordings and any other relevant material reflecting any of the conversations and/or correspondence between the Client and MEL. The Client accepts that evidence of any such recordings may be used by MEL in resolving any dispute or difference between the Client and MEL.

PART 2: MONEX PAY ONLINE

12. CLIENT ONLINE ACCOUNT

12.1 The Client Online Account is not a "Payment Account" for the purposes of the Payment Services Regulation 2017.

12.2 To open a Client Online Account, the Client must provide a username, password, email address, a mobile phone number and two items of memorable information and such other information for security purposes as MEL shall require for each Authorised Person who is entitled to access the Client Online Account. MEL reserves the right to change the requisite security information it requires without giving prior notice to the Client. Each Authorised Person's username and password are personal to that Authorised Person and are not transferable without MEL's prior written consent.

12.3 MEL reserves the right to require the Client to change an Authorised Person's login and security details at any time and for any reason and the Client must promptly change the login and security details of any Authorised Person where MEL asks the Client to do so.

12.4 The Client Online Account may only be accessed by an Authorised Person and the Client agrees that no Authorised Person is permitted to disclose his or her login details to any other person. It is the Client's and the Supervising Authorised Person's responsibility to regularly monitor and update the list of Authorised Persons on Monex Pay and to ensure that all Authorised Persons are so authorised.

12.5 MEL shall be entitled not to act on the Client's instructions if it has any grounds for suspecting the user of the Client Online Account is not an Authorised Person, but MEL owes the Client no duty to check that the user is an Authorised Person where the correct login and security details are used to access the Client Online Account.

12.6 The Client must inform MEL immediately by telephone should the Client suspect or discover that (a) someone else knows any Authorised Person's login or security details or (b) that any Authorised Person's login or security details may have been misused or lost or stolen. Subject to clause 22, any Authorised Person's login or security details have been so compromised or used to access Monex Pay or the Client Online Account by an unauthorised person then unless the Client has notified MEL, MEL will not be liable to the Client for acting on any instruction received by MEL from that Authorised Person.

12.7 The Client must take all reasonable precautions to keep safe and prevent unauthorised and fraudulent use of Monex Pay and the Client Online Account. These precautions include, but are not limited to, the following: (a) treating security details as confidential, (b) never sharing or allowing others to use an Authorised Person's login or security details, (c) using anti-virus software, anti-spyware software and a personal firewall to keep personal computer secure, (d) never accessing Monex Pay or the Client Online Account from any computer or mobile device connected to a wireless or local area network such as a public internet access device, (e) never recording security details on any software which retains it automatically, (f) immediately logging off from the Client Online Account once they have concluded their use, (g) always accessing Monex Pay via the Website (and never going to Monex Pay from a link except that from the initial welcome email) and entering security details, (h) always being sure of the identity of the person or company the Client is sending money to and (i) always ensuring that all Authorised Persons lists are maintained and up-to-date and ensuring that access rights are immediately cancelled for all Authorised Persons who cease to work for the Client.

13. USE OF MONEX PAY

13.1 The Privacy Policy which can be found here (<https://www.monexeurope.com/privacy-policy/>) governs each Authorised Person's use of Monex Pay.

13.2 MEL reserves the right to change Monex Pay or any feature or facility of Monex Pay or service provided through Monex Pay to the Client. MEL will advise the Client of any such changes by placing a message on the Website login page, through a Monex Pay app or by emailing the Client.

13.3 The Client is responsible for obtaining, maintaining and ensuring compatibility of the Client's own equipment when using Monex Pay. MEL will not be responsible for any loss of or damage to the Client's data, software, computer, telecommunications or other equipment caused by their use of any of Monex Pay unless such loss or damage is directly and solely caused by MEL's gross negligence or wilful default.

13.4 MEL does not warrant that the Client's access to Monex Pay, the Client Online Account or the Client E-Money Account (as applicable) will be uninterrupted, continuous or error free or free from infection by viruses or anything else with contaminating or destructive properties.

13.5 The Client must not misuse Monex Pay by knowingly introducing viruses, trojans, worms, logic bombs or any other material which is malicious or technologically harmful to computer systems.

13.6 The Client must not gain or attempt to gain unauthorised access to Monex Pay, the Client Online Account, the Client E-Money Account or any server, computer or database connected to Monex Pay. The Client must not attack Monex Pay through a denial-of-service attack or a distributed denial of service attack or do anything that would facilitate or allow such an attack. Any such deliberate action may amount to the commission of a criminal offence and MEL reserves the right to report any such breach to the relevant law enforcement authorities and will co-operate with those authorities by disclosing the Client's identity to them.

13.7 MEL uses a high level of encryption, and the use of such encryption may be illegal in some countries outside of the UK. The Client should ensure that the Client does not knowingly use Monex Pay or any feature of Monex Pay where this is not permitted by the Client's local law.

13.8 MEL will use reasonable endeavours to keep Monex Pay free from viruses and corrupt files.

13.9 MEL shall not be liable to the Client for any loss, expense, damage, delay, costs, or compensation (whether direct or indirect or consequential) which may be suffered by the Client or incurred by the Client arising from or in any way connected with any interruption or inability to access Monex Pay, any errors in Monex Pay, a distributed denial-of-service attack, any viruses or other technologically harmful material that may infect the Client's equipment by accessing or using Monex Pay, any use of Monex Pay that is not permitted by the Client's local law unless such loss or damage is directly and solely caused by MEL's gross negligence or wilful default.

13.10 All content included on Monex Pay and the Website and the copyright and other intellectual property rights subsisting in that content, belongs to or has been licensed by MEL Group Company. All content is protected by applicable United Kingdom and/or international intellectual property laws and treaties.

13.11 The Client may cancel the Client's access to Monex Pay or the Client Online Account at any time by contacting MEL via telephone or email.

PART 2B: PAYMENT ACCOUNT SERVICES

14. PROVISION OF CLIENT E-MONEY ACCOUNTS

14.1 A Client may request that MEL open a Client E-Money Account and MEL may, in its sole discretion, accept such request and issue a Client with a Client E-Money Account. Where MEL issues a Client with a Client E-Money Account, the provisions of this Section 2B shall apply in addition to the other provisions of these Terms.

14.2 For the avoidance of doubt, Clients may continue to receive the Money Remittance Services without a Client E-Money Account through the Client Online Account and Monex Pay.

14.3 A Client may request that MEL provide a Virtual IBAN and MEL may, in its sole discretion, accept such request. The Virtual IBAN linked to the Client E-Money Account will be provided by a third party provider, while the account itself will be provided by MEL. The Virtual IBAN is not an account opened in the Client's name and is used to allow the Client to receive payments into the Client E-Money Account established and operated by MEL for the issuance of electronic money by MEL. This third party provider does not provide the Client with any payment services under the Payment Services Regulations 2017 or electronic money services under the Electronic Money Regulations 2011.

14.4 The Client E-Money Account is a Payment Account for the purposes of the Payment Services Regulations 2017.

14.5 MEL offers Client E-Money Accounts in the currencies communicated to the Client by MEL. For the avoidance of doubt, MEL will not be able to offer the Payment Account Services in respect of currencies that are outside of the scope of this list.

14.6 To open a Client E-Money Account, Clients must provide a username, password, email address, a mobile phone number and two items of memorable information and such other information for security purposes as MEL shall require for themselves and each Authorised Person who is entitled to access the Client E-Money Account, if any. MEL reserves the right to change the requisite security information it requires without giving prior notice to the Client. Each Authorised Person's username and password are personal to that Authorised Person and are not transferable without MEL's prior written consent.

14.7 Where Client already holds a Client Online Account, MEL may, at its sole discretion, open a Client E-Money Account for Client using existing information it holds on Client and any Authorised Person.

14.8 Clients can view any balance held on the Client E-Money Account using Monex Pay. Information relating to any transfers to or from the Client E-Money Account will be made available on Monex Pay.

15. PURPOSE OF THE PAYMENT ACCOUNT SERVICES

15.1 The Client E-Money Account can be used by Clients to (a) store funds in one or more currencies nominated by the Client, (b) issue Payment

Instructions for payments to other payment recipients, (c) receive Third Party Payments, (d) execute foreign exchange transactions in accordance with Part 1 of these Terms, including meeting Initial Margin and Variation Margin requirements.

15.2 Client authorises MEL to debit the Client E-Money Account to meet obligations owed by the Client in relation to the execution of foreign exchange transactions, including, without limitation, to meet any Initial Margin, Variation Margin or Margin Call requirements or the delivery of the Sell Currency due under a Contract.

15.3 MEL reserves the right to change the Payment Account Services or any feature or facility of the Payment Account Services. MEL will advise the Client of any such changes by placing a message on the Website login page, through the Client E-Money Account or by emailing the Client.

15.4 The Client must take all reasonable steps to ensure that the Client E-Money Account is never used for illegal or immoral purposes, nor any other purpose that could harm the MEL brand.

16. USE OF CLIENT E-MONEY ACCOUNTS

16.1 MEL will credit any funds received from Client or through a Third Party Payment to the Client E-Money Account and shall treat the receipt of any such funds as a request to issue electronic money.

16.2 Payment Instructions in relation to a Client E-Money Account can be given through Monex Pay.

16.3 Client may request redemption of electronic money stored on the Client E-Money Account at any time through Monex Pay. Any redemption from the Client E-Money Account will be to the Designated Bank Account. Client may request redemption of electronic money stored on the Client E-Money Account for up to six (6) years following termination of the Terms.

16.4 Clients must comply with all reasonable instructions provided by MEL regarding the security of the Client E-Money Account.

16.5 MEL may require the Client to authenticate any instruction relating to the Client E-Money Account. This could be authenticated, for example, by the provision of log in details, identification, user information or such other authentication methods as determined by MEL from time to time.

16.6 The Client's personal details that are linked to the Client E-Money Account must be kept up-to-date at all times.

16.7 Clients should take reasonable steps to stop their Client E-Money Account from being misused. The Client must maintain adequate security and control of any and all devices, items, IDs, passwords and personal identification numbers and/or codes that the Client uses to access their Client E-Money Account and the Payment Account Services. Such precautions include, but are not limited to, the following:

- (a) treating security details as confidential;
- (b) never sharing or allowing others to use such login or security details;
- (c) using anti-virus software, anti-spyware software and a personal firewall to keep personal computer or other device secure;
- (d) never accessing the Payment Account Services from any computer or mobile device connected to a wireless or local area network such as a public internet access device;
- (e) never recording security details on any software which retains it automatically;
- (f) never misuse the Payment Account Services by knowingly introducing viruses, trojans, worms, logic bombs or any other material which is malicious or technologically harmful to computer systems;
- (g) immediately logging off from the Client E-Money Account once they have concluded their use;
- (h) always accessing the Payment Account Services via the Website (and never going to the Payment Account Services from a link except that from the initial welcome email) and entering security details;
- (i) always being sure of the identity of the person or company the Client is sending money to; and
- (j) always ensuring that all such security and log on details are maintained and up-to-date and ensuring that access rights are immediately cancelled for all Authorised Persons who cease to work for the Client.

16.8 The Client must inform MEL immediately by telephone should the Client suspect or discover that: (a) someone else knows the relevant login or security details for the Client E-Money Account; or (b) that any such login or security details may have been misused or lost or stolen. If any such login or security details have been so compromised or used to access the Payment Account Services by an unauthorised person, then unless the Client has notified MEL, MEL will not be liable to the Client for acting on any instruction received by MEL in respect of the Payment Account Services.

16.9 The Client is responsible for obtaining, maintaining and ensuring compatibility of the Client's own equipment when using the Payment Account Services. MEL will not be responsible for any loss of or damage to the Client's data, software, computer, telecommunications or other equipment caused by their use of any of the Payment Account Services unless such loss or damage is directly and solely caused by MEL's gross negligence or wilful default.

16.10 MEL does not warrant that the Client's access to the Payment Account Services will be uninterrupted, continuous or error free or free from infection by viruses or anything else with contaminating or destructive properties.

17. OPEN BANKING

17.1 The Client may permit authorised third parties to access data or carry out transactions on the Client E-Money Account through the use of third party application programming interfaces and MEL shall permit such access as required by the Payment Services Regulations 2017.

17.2 Where a Client authorises a third party to access the Client E-Money Account through a third party application programming interface, MEL will, to the extent permitted by applicable law and regulation, not be liable for: (a) any incorrect information provided by the third party;

- (b) any illegitimate access to the Client E-Money Account by the third party;
- (c) any vulnerability exploited in the Client E-Money Account as a result of the use of a third party and/or the third party application programming interface;
- (d) any cybersecurity or data related breaches suffered by the third party or the application programming interface, or any such breach that is caused solely or primarily by the third party or the application programming interface;
- (e) any breaches of law, regulation or any other act, error, or omission of the third party; and
- (f) anything for which the third party is solely or primarily responsible for.

17.3 To the extent permitted by applicable law and regulation, the Client is solely responsible for their use of the third party application programming interfaces and ensuring that such interfaces are duly authorised or otherwise legally permitted to act in such a manner. MEL will in no way be liable to the Client if the Client elects to use an illegal third party or application programming interface.

PART 3: ELECTRONIC MONEY SERVICES AND MONEY REMITTANCE SERVICES

18. PAYMENT INSTRUCTIONS

18.1 Only an Authorised Person may give Payment Instructions to MEL. All Payment Instructions should be provided by means of Monex Pay. The Client authorises MEL to accept such Payment Instructions from Authorised Persons. Payment Instructions given by email or other internet communication are not secure and are sent at the Client's risk.

18.2 MEL will act upon Payment Instructions which are or appear to be from the Authorised Person on behalf of the Client without further confirmation. MEL reserves the right to require further written confirmation of any Payment Instruction, for example where the Payment Instruction appears to be ambiguous or unclear.

18.3 A Payment Instruction shall be deemed to be received at the time of receipt of the Payment Instruction by MEL unless: (a) it is received on a day that is not a Business Day or after 12 pm London time on that Business Day in which case it shall be deemed to have been received on the first Business Day thereafter; or (b) the Client agrees with MEL that the Payment Instruction is to take place on a specific day or when MEL receives the Buy Currency.

18.4 The Client may not revoke or amend a Payment Instruction after the end of the Business Day preceding the Delivery Date, without the prior written consent of MEL. MEL may, at its absolute discretion, refuse to accept such Client requests to revoke or amend a Payment Instruction.

18.5 Should MEL revoke or amend a Payment Instruction at the Client's request, the Client shall be liable to reimburse MEL in full, on demand, for any reasonable costs incurred as a result of such revocation or amendment. MEL will notify the Client in writing or by email of any such reasonable costs.

18.6 MEL reserves the right to delay, decline or reverse any Payment Instruction if MEL reasonably suspects that the Payment might be unlawful or might be associated with financial crime/fraud or if it reasonably believes that by carrying out the Payment it might breach its compliance obligations or if the Client is in breach of the Terms. The Client agrees that MEL will not be liable to the Client if MEL delays or refuses to carry out any Payment Instruction in such circumstances.

18.7 Where the Client disputes any executed Payment Instruction entered into through Monex Pay, MEL will investigate the matter in good faith and the Client agrees to fully cooperate with MEL and local law enforcement in any such investigations.

18.8 Where MEL suspects that the Payment might be unlawful or might be associated with financial crime/fraud or it may breach MEL's compliance obligations, MEL will normally contact the Supervising Authorised Person or the Authorised Person and will verify their identity by asking them some security questions.

18.9 The Client accepts that MEL may introduce alternative methods of Payment Instrument from time to time.

Payment Instructions Received By Internet Communication

18.10 The Client must provide a username, password, email address, a mobile phone number and two items of memorable information and such other information for security purposes as Monex Pay shall require for each Authorised Person who is entitled to give Payment Instructions by internet communication. MEL reserves the right to change the requisite security information it requires from the Client and it will give the Client reasonable notice of such a change. Each Authorised Person's username and password are personal to that Authorised Person and are not transferable without MEL's prior written consent.

18.11 Whenever Payment Instructions are given by use of the Authorised Person's username and password pertaining to an Authorised Person, the Client authorises MEL to act on those Payment Instructions received.

18.12 The Client agrees that all Payment Instructions by email or other internet communication shall be made at Client's own risk.

18.13 Where a Payment Instruction received by email or other internet communication is later found to be incorrect or to have been intercepted by a third party and altered, the liability for any loss resulting from such incorrect or altered Payment Instruction shall remain with the Client. MEL recommends that Payments Instructions are given by Monex Pay.

18.14 The Client acknowledges that MEL may record and store all internet communications. MEL reserves the right to produce and store copies of these communications in a central server and use these copies for the purposes of verifying the details of any Payment Instructions or to resolve any disputes between the Client and MEL.

18.15 Although MEL will endeavour to maintain the security and privacy of internet communications, the Client acknowledges that the internet and emails may not be a secure medium for the communication of sensitive information. The Client agrees that communication by email or its use of MEL's websites will be at the Client's own risk.

Payment Instructions Received Through Monex Pay

18.16 The Client agrees that Authorised Persons with the requisite permissions are authorised to give Payment Instructions to MEL by using Monex Pay. It is agreed that all Authorised Persons shall be Authorised Persons for the purposes of giving Payment Instructions in relation to Parts 2 to 4 of these Terms.

18.17 Whenever Monex Pay, the Client Online Account or the Client E-Money Account is accessed through the login and security details pertaining to an Authorised Person, the Client authorises MEL to act on those Payment Instructions received.

18.18 It is the Client's and the Supervising Authorised Person's responsibility to regularly monitor and update the list of Authorised Persons on Monex Pay and to ensure that all Authorised Persons are so authorised. MEL will not be liable to the Client or a third party where it has accepted a Payment Instruction from a person who originally had authority to act on behalf of the Client but who does not now have authority if MEL has not been informed of any changes in the correct manner by the Client.

18.19 The Client must inform MEL as soon as possible by telephone of any unauthorised or incorrectly initiated or executed Payment Instruction and such notification in any event should be no later than thirteen (13) months after the Delivery Date on becoming aware of the unauthorised or incorrectly initiated or executed Payment Instruction.

Refusal to Accept a Payment Instruction

18.20 MEL reserves the right to refuse to accept or execute a Payment Instruction if:

- there are insufficient cleared funds recorded as available for use by the Client on the Client Online Account or credited to the Client E-Money Account (as applicable) with MEL;
- the Client is in breach of these Terms, the Application Form or the terms relating to any other transaction with MEL or any MEL Group Company;
- MEL has reasonable grounds for suspecting fraud or other unlawful activity in relation thereto;
- MEL believes there is a significant and detrimental change to the Client's financial standing;
- MEL is required to refuse to make the Payment on legal or regulatory grounds; or
- MEL believes that execution of the Payment Instruction may have a detrimental effect on MEL's reputation.
- If MEL refuses to accept or execute a Payment Instruction it will inform the Client as soon as possible, give reasons for the refusal (unless it is unlawful to do so) and where appropriate give the Client reasonable opportunity to remedy the reason for the refusal.

19. PAYMENT IMPLEMENTATION AND NOTIFICATION

19.1 Receipt of Sell Currency:

- For Clients without a Client E-Money Account: On receipt of the Sell Currency from the Client into the Nominated Account, MEL will immediately make available details of the receipt of the Sell Currency into the Client's Online Account with the Value Date of the funds credited.
- For Clients with a Client E-Money Account: on receipt of the Sell Currency into the Client E-Money Account, MEL will immediately issue electronic money in the value of the Sell Currency and credit the Client E-Money Account with the Value Date of the funds credited as electronic money.

19.2 Currency Purchase:

- For Clients without a Client E-Money Account: Following receipt of the Sell Currency or the Balance from the Client into the Nominated Account, MEL will sell the Sell Currency and buy the Buy Currency and credit a MEL Buy Currency Account with the Buy Currency. MEL will make available details on the Client Online Account of the Buy Currency or the Balance credited to a MEL Buy Currency Account. The Buy Currency will be held in the MEL Buy Currency Account until MEL has received the appropriate Payment Instructions from the Client in the prescribed format and MEL will then make Payment of the Buy Currency to the Specified Account from the MEL Buy Currency Account in accordance with the Contract.

- For Clients with a Client E-Money Account: Following receipt of the Sell Currency or the Balance from the Client into the Client E-Money Account for the purposes of executing a Contract, MEL will sell the Sell Currency and buy the Buy Currency and issue electronic money in the value of the Buy Currency and credit the Client E-Money Account with the Buy Currency. The Buy Currency will be held in the Client E-Money Account as Electronic Money.

19.3 Banks have specified times of cut-off as shown in the Currency Appendix for the receipt and dispatch of electronic payments. MEL accepts no responsibility for any delay in onward payment attributable to the late arrival of funds or Payment Instruction relative to the cut-off times of the designated bank. MEL will not be under any obligation to transfer the Buy Currency to the Specified Account or execute a Payment Instruction on the Client E-Money Account (as applicable) until it has unconditionally received the Sell Currency in full as cleared funds in the Nominated Account or Client E-Money Account.

19.4 Provided that the full amount of Sell Currency or the Balance is received by MEL before 12 pm London time on the Value Date, MEL will on receipt of a valid Payment Instruction remit the Buy Currency to the Specified Account or execute the Payment Instruction on the Client E-Money Account (as applicable) but not earlier than the Delivery Date.

19.5 Where the full amount of the Sell Currency or the full remaining Balance is received by MEL after 12 pm London time on the Value Date, MEL will, subject to clauses 19.1 and 19.2, seek to remit the Buy Currency on the Delivery Date to the Specified Account or in accordance with any Payment Instruction.

19.6 The Client is liable for all reasonable Losses suffered and costs incurred by MEL or the Client as a result of the Client making payment into the wrong account at MEL or in the wrong currency to MEL.

19.7 MEL shall not be liable to the Client where the Client provides incorrect information in the Payment Instructions and in particular if the unique identifier is wrong.

19.8 MEL shall not be liable for any fees or commissions charged by any intermediary bank (including the Client's bank) when any funds are transferred to any of MEL's bank accounts or to the Client E-Money Account.

19.9 On the Delivery Date, and having received the appropriate Payment Instruction from the Client in the prescribed format MEL shall endeavour to transmit electronically to the Client a Payment pre-notification in English which will set out the details of the Payment which MEL intends to make (which includes the name of the payee, the amount of the payment, the Delivery Date, Payment Value Date, the payee's account details and any applicable charges).

19.10 Once MEL has remitted the Buy Currency to the Specified Account or in accordance with any Payment Instructions it will endeavour to email the Client a Payment Confirmation which will set out the details of the Payment including the Payment Value Date. Any failure by MEL to issue a Payment Confirmation to the Client does not mean the Payment has not been executed.

19.11 Payment Confirmations and pre-notifications are sent by email. In exceptional circumstances and upon written request by the Client, they may be sent by post. They shall be deemed to have been received by the Client upon transmission if sent by email and two (2) Business Days from the date of posting if sent by post. Documents shall be sent to the last known email address, postal address given by each party from time to time. It is the duty of the Client to ensure that MEL has up-to-date contact information.

19.12 Upon request by the Client, MEL will provide the Client with the appropriate SWIFT message confirming either MEL's intention to remit funds or that the funds have been sent or credited as per the Payment Instruction.

19.13 If MEL does not execute, or incorrectly executes a transaction, MEL will without undue delay take the necessary action to rectify the error or omission.

19.14 Where the Client requests information about the execution of a Payment Instruction, MEL will take steps to trace the payment and will notify the Client of the outcome.

19.15 Where the Client provides incorrect information in the Payment Instructions and the funds are consequently transferred to the wrong bank account, MEL will, on being informed by the Client of such an event, make reasonable efforts to recover the funds and cooperate with the payee's bank in taking steps to recover the funds.

19.16 APP FRAUD

- The Client shall ensure that any Payment Instructions it authorises are made to legitimate beneficiaries and agrees to verify their identities before providing a Payment Instruction to MEL.

 - VIII. the claim is made more than 13 months after the payment to the fraudster;
 - IX. the payment was executed on a payment system other than Faster Payments or CHAPS;
 - X. the Client acted with negligence.
- (j) If the Client is a victim of APP Fraud, MEL will evaluate the situation based on the Financial Conduct Authority's (FCA) guidelines for APP Fraud reimbursement. If MEL determines that the Client qualifies for compensation under these guidelines, a refund will be issued.
- (k) MEL will aim to provide a decision on any refund related to APP Fraud within five (5) Business Days of notification, contingent upon completing the necessary investigation and obtaining relevant information. In exceptional circumstances, this timeframe may be extended to thirty-five (35) Business Days.
- (l) If the Client is entitled to a refund, MEL will reimburse up to £85,000 per claim as established by the Payment Systems Regulator for APP Fraud cases. However, MEL may apply an excess of £100 in certain instances, resulting in a maximum refundable amount of £84,900.

20. CHARGES

20.1 MEL will not charge the Client for the remittance of the first Payment of the Buy Currency under the Contract. MEL reserves the right to charge the Client £20 (or the full cost to MEL if higher) in relation to each additional Payment under the Contract.

21. CHANGES TO MONEY REMITTANCE SERVICE AND ELECTRONIC MONEY SERVICE TERMS

21.1 For Corporate Clients, all proposed changes to the terms relating to Money Remittance Services or Electronic Money Services (as applicable) will take immediate effect. 21.2 For Non-Corporate Clients:

- (a) All proposed changes to the terms relating to Money Remittance Services or Electronic Money Services (as applicable) will be notified to the Client at least two (2) months before they take effect, unless the changes are of benefit to the Client, in which case they will take effect immediately.
- (b) Any such changes are deemed to have been accepted unless the Client informs MEL otherwise.
- (c) In the event that the Client does not accept the changes, MEL will take this as notice from the Client that they wish to terminate this agreement with MEL, without incurring any account closing charges.

22. ANTI MONEY-LAUNDERING

22.1 MEL is required by law to conduct ongoing monitoring of all Clients and transactions in order to comply with the Money Laundering Regulations 2017. This includes monitoring Payments and transactions for the prevention and detection of financial crime. To comply with this requirement, the Client is required to:

- (a) provide MEL with all information and documents as MEL considers necessary for the opening of the Client E-Money Account and for the establishment of the business relationship;

- (b) ensure that such information is correct, accurate and truthful;
- (c) execute all documents that MEL reasonably requests from the Client from time to time, including any document in order to confirm tax residence;

- (e) respond promptly and no later than four (4) Business Days from the receipt of any request, to any requests for information relating to a Payment.

22.2 For the avoidance of doubt, MEL may share information collected during and the results of client due diligence and "Know Your Customer" ("KYC") checks with any third party provider of the Virtual IBAN in accordance with clause 30.3 of these Terms.

23. MEL LIABILITY FOR ELECTRONIC MONEY SERVICES AND MONEY REMITTANCE SERVICES

23.1 Where Client is a Corporate Client, MEL and the Client acknowledge and agree that Part 6 and regulations 66(1), 67(3) and 67(4), 75, 77, 79, 80, 83, 91, 92 and 94 of the Payment Services Regulations 2017 do not apply to these Terms.

23.2 MEL is required to ensure that Client funds are appropriately safeguarded under the Payment Services Regulations 2017 (for Money Remittance Services) and the Electronic Money Regulations 2011 (for Electronic Money Services) (together, the "Relevant Regulations"). Where MEL holds funds for a Client in a Client E-Money Account or holds a Buy Currency pending a Payment Instruction in the course of providing Money Remittance Services or Electronic Money Services, these funds will, where required, be either (1) held in segregated bank accounts in MEL's name, or (2) invested in secure, liquid assets that meet the criteria set out by the Financial Conduct Authority ("FCA") and placed in a separate account with an FCA-authorized custodian (in each case, the "Safeguarded Funds"). All Safeguarded Funds will be held separate from MEL's own funds in accordance with the Relevant Regulations. In the event of MEL's insolvency, the Safeguarded Funds will form an asset pool which is separate from MEL's insolvent estate, and an administrator will be entitled to reimburse Clients from this pool (in priority to other creditors). An administrator's or insolvency practitioner's costs will be paid from the Safeguarded Funds in priority to other claims. For the avoidance of doubt, Safeguarded Funds are not protected by the Financial Services Compensation Scheme ("FSCS"). For the further avoidance of doubt, Initial Margin and Variation Margin, or any other funds held by MEL which are unrelated to Money Remittance Services or Electronic Money Services, are not Safeguarded Funds.

23.3 Subject to clause 23.4, in relation to the provision of Money Remittance Services and Electronic Money Services, MEL and the directors, officers, employees, contractors and agents of MEL shall not be liable to the Client (or any person claiming under or through the Client) whether in contract, tort (including negligence), breach of statutory or regulatory duty or otherwise for:

- (a) any Losses which may be suffered or incurred by the Client arising from or in any way connected with any delay, failure or error in making any Payment pursuant to a Contract, where such delay, failure or error is caused directly or indirectly by:
- (i) any failure, error, essential maintenance, critical change, repairs or alteration of any computer system or communications system or transmission link of any kind under the control of MEL;
- (ii) any acts, omissions or failure of any third party, including the failure of any third party platform, system, interface or other technology which MEL uses in the performance of its obligations or exercise of its rights under these Terms; or
- (iii) any enquiries made by MEL or any bank which are deemed necessary by MEL or the bank, at their sole discretion, in order to comply with any present or future Applicable Regulations, or
- (b) any Losses arising directly from or in connection with the provision of the Client Online Account or Client E-Money Account in accordance with these Terms, except to the extent that such Losses are due to the gross negligence, wilful default or fraud of MEL or the directors, officers, employees, contractors or agents of MEL or material breach of these Terms by of MEL or the directors, officers, employees, contractors or agents of MEL; or
- (c) any indirect or consequential loss or damage, for any direct or indirect loss of business or business interruption, loss of profit, anticipated savings or goodwill, loss of agreements or contract or loss of use or corruption of data or information.

Nothing in this clause 23 will exclude or limit any duty or liability which may not be excluded or limited under applicable law or regulation.

23.4 Where the Client is a Non-Corporate Client the Client might be entitled to claim a refund in relation to a Payment made under a Payment Instruction or any payment where:

- (a) The payment was not authorised under these Terms and the Client has notified MEL in accordance with clause 24.4; or
- (b) MEL has incorrectly or defectively executed the Payment.

23.5 If the Client is entitled to a refund MEL will reimburse interest and charges the Client has incurred as a result of the incorrect or defective execution of the Payment or an unauthorised execution of a payment transaction and this is the maximum liability of MEL to the Client for breach of contract, breach of statutory duty or negligence. MEL will not be liable for or pay any indirect or consequential loss, damage, cost or expense whether it was foreseeable or not resulting from the incorrect or defective execution of the Payment or an unauthorised execution of a payment transaction.

24. DISPUTES AND COMPLAINTS

24.1 MEL will deal with any complaint by a Non-Corporate Client relating to the Money Remittance Services or Electronic Money Services in accordance with MEL's Complaints Policy which can be found here: <https://www.monexeurope.com/complaints-policy>. Clients that are still dissatisfied following MEL's response to any complaint, may have a right to refer a complaint to the Financial Ombudsman Service, Exchange Tower, London, E14 9SR.

24.2 If MEL issues a Payment Confirmation to a Corporate Client, any error or omission must be notified to MEL within one Working Hour of its dispatch by MEL to the Corporate Client. Thereafter the Corporate Client is deemed to have accepted the Payment Confirmation and shall not thereafter be entitled to dispute the content of the Payment Confirmation. In the case of complaint made by a Corporate Client, MEL will liaise with the Corporate Client to try and resolve the dispute as amicably as possible.

24.3 A Non-Corporate Client may notify MEL if it is dissatisfied with any aspect of the Money Remittance Services or Electronic Money Services and MEL will seek to resolve that matter as soon as possible. Such a Client must notify MEL by telephoning MEL's Operations Department on the numbers given in the welcome email or settlement reminder or emailing compliance@monexeurope.com or writing to the Compliance Department at 1 Bartholomew Lane, London, EC2N 2AX.

If the Non-Corporate Client does not notify MEL within these timescales the Non-Corporate Client will lose any right to a refund under clause 23 of the payment made.

24.5 Where MEL establishes that the Payment was not authorised by the Non-Corporate Client or incorrectly executed MEL will refund the amount of the Payment and where appropriate restore Client Online Account, Client E-Money Account, and/or MEL Buy Currency Account, as the case may be, to the state it was in before the Payment was made.

24.6 MEL may make such reasonable investigations and enquiries as are necessary to establish whether or not the Payment Instruction given by the Non-Corporate Client has been properly authorised or executed.

24.7 For Corporate Clients, if the unauthorised transaction arises from the Client having acted fraudulently or negligently the Client will be liable for all losses incurred.

24.8 For Non-Corporate Clients, if an unauthorised or incorrectly initiated or incorrectly executed transaction arises from: (a) the Client having acted fraudulently; or (b) the Client failing to comply with the security requirements set out in clauses 12.7 and 16.7 as a result of either intent or gross negligence, the Client will be liable for all Losses incurred.

25. TERMINATION RIGHTS

25.1 The Client may terminate these terms at any time by giving one (1) month's notice to MEL.

25.5 Where Client is a Non-Corporate Client, MEL may:

- (a) terminate these terms at any time by giving at least two (2) months' notice to the Client; or

 - (i) the Client is using the Foreign Exchange Services, Electronic Money Services and / or Money Remittance Services fraudulently or illegally;
 - (ii) MEL is required to do so by Applicable Regulations or a regulatory or governmental body;
 - (iii) in MEL's view (acting reasonably), MEL must do so to fulfil its legal or regulatory obligations; or
 - (iv) MEL considers it necessary (acting reasonably) to terminate these Terms for its own protection, including without limitation to protect itself from any negative economic, commercial and/or reputational consequences.

25.6 Otherwise, MEL may suspend or terminate these Terms, the Client's access to Monex Pay, and the Client Online Account and/or Payment Services (in whole or in part) at any time with immediate effect by providing notice if:

- (a) the Client breaches any material representation or warranty or is otherwise in material breach of these Terms;

- (g) a Force Majeure Event occurs.

25.7 Termination of the Terms under this Clause 25 shall be without prejudice to any existing rights and obligations of the parties (including under outstanding Contracts).

25.8 Where MEL or the Client, terminates these Terms and MEL is holding any funds, the Client shall provide MEL with new Payment Instructions so that MEL can pay any funds to the Client.

26. ASSIGNMENT

26.1 The obligations under these Terms bind, and the rights will be enforceable by, the parties and their respective successors and permitted assigns.

26.2 MEL may, at any time, transfer all or any part of its rights and obligations under these Terms to any MEL Group Company by delivering to the Client a written notice of transfer (a "Transfer Notice") specifying the MEL Group Company to which any such transfer is to be made and the date of the transfer and the Client agrees to take such actions as MEL may reasonably require to effect such transfer. On delivery of a Transfer Notice to Client, and to the extent set out in any such Transfer Notice, MEL and the Client shall be released from obligations to each other and the MEL Group Company or MEL Group Companies specified in the Transfer Notice and Client shall assume all of the rights and obligations to each other (and to any other MEL Group Companies) under these Terms (or any other terms as specified in the Transfer Notice) as were previously owed to or by MEL and the rights and obligations under any other terms detailed in the Transfer Notice.

Any purported assignment or transfer, declaration of trust or performance of obligations without such consent will be invalid.

28. FORCE MAJEURE

28.1 MEL will not be liable to the Client for failure to perform or delay in performing any of its obligations in relation to a Contract in so far as the performance of such obligations is prevented by a Force Majeure Event. For the avoidance of doubt, a Force Majeure Event does not include an Adverse Market Movement or an event causing an Adverse Market Movement but does include MEL being unable to obtain Buy Currency due to any circumstances beyond its reasonable control.

28.2 If MEL is unable to perform or is delayed in performing its obligations in relation to a Contract due to a Force Majeure Event, MEL shall promptly notify the Client of the occurrence of a Force Majeure Event and use all reasonable endeavours to continue to perform its obligations in relation to the Contract.

It is also made clear that the Introducer is not authorised by MEL to bind MEL in any way, to offer guarantees against losses, to offer foreign exchange services or legal, investment or tax advice on MEL's behalf. It is also noted that the Introducer is not authorised by MEL to collect money from Client. The Client acknowledges that MEL may enter into commission sharing arrangements for the introduction of Clients and may require certain personal data to be shared.

31.2 Nothing in these Terms shall be deemed to create a partnership or joint venture or agency relationship between the parties or confer any right or benefit to any third party. No person who is not a party to a Contract shall have any rights under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 to enforce any term of a Contract. MEL does not owe any fiduciary duties to you in connection with these Terms. You should seek your own independent advice before signing these Terms.

31.3 These Terms together with the Application Form, Contract Note, Order Confirmation and any Margin Facility Agreement (together with any other agreement agreed between Client and MEL to so form) shall constitute the whole agreement between the parties in relation to a Contract and supersede any previous arrangement, understanding or agreement between them relating to a Contract (unless specified otherwise). The Client acknowledges that, in entering into an agreement with MEL, it does not rely on any statement, representation, assurance or warranty of MEL or any of its employees or agents other than as expressly set out in these Terms unless agreed in writing by two directors of MEL.

31.4 A failure or delay in exercising any right, power or privilege in respect of these Terms will not be presumed to operate as a waiver, and a single or partial exercise of any right, power or privilege will not be presumed to preclude any subsequent or further exercise, of that right, power or privilege or the exercise of any other right, power or privilege.

31.5 Should any of these Terms be deemed unenforceable or illegal, the remaining Terms will nevertheless continue in force and effect.

31.6 MEL may have entered into or may in future enter into agreements or master agreements with you, which govern specific transactions or types of transactions (including derivative transactions). In an event of any conflict between these Terms and any such agreement, the terms of the specific agreement shall prevail in relation to the relevant transaction or type of transaction.

31.7 In circumstances where, pursuant to a transaction and/or agreement, monies are owed by the Client to MEL and the Client fails to make payment of the same when due in accordance with the transaction and/or agreement MEL shall be entitled to assume that the Client is insolvent and unable pay its debts as they fall due. In that case, MEL reserves the right to take appropriate further action, which may include the commencement of insolvency proceedings against the Client for the full amounts owed, including interest and costs.

31.8 The Client hereby declares that, to the extent applicable, the Client is in compliance with the provisions of the Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act ("FATCA") and the Client hereby undertakes to ensure the compliance of the provisions of the FATCA (to the extent applicable) at all times. The Client agrees to indemnify MEL against all Losses which it may incur as a result of the Client's failure to comply with its obligations under FATCA. MEL reserves the right to request, and the Client has the obligation to provide MEL with documentary evidence to validate the Client's U.S. /non U.S. status for FATCA purposes and to determine the Client's tax residency to ensure MEL's compliance with the legal and regulatory requirements adopted in the applicable jurisdictions including but not limited FATCA.

31.9 In circumstances where, pursuant to the Contract, monies are owed by the Client to MEL, the Client shall be obliged to make payment of the same when due in accordance with the Contract. The Client shall not be entitled to avoid, delay or reduce its obligation to make payment when due under the Contract by reference to, or in reliance on, any actual or alleged counterclaim or set off. The Client shall not be entitled to raise any alleged counterclaim or set off in response to any statutory demand, winding up petition, bankruptcy petition or other insolvency proceedings brought by MEL in relation to monies owed pursuant to the Contract (including in order to dispute that such monies are owed to MEL).

31.10 In circumstances where, pursuant to the Contract, monies are owed by the Client to MEL and the Client fails to make payment of the same when due in accordance with the Contract MEL shall be entitled to assume that the Client is insolvent and unable pay its debts as they fall due. In that case, MEL reserve the right to take appropriate further action, which may include the commencement of insolvency proceedings against the Client for the full amounts owed, including interest and costs.

SCHEDULE 1A – FOREIGN EXCHANGE MEANS OF PAYMENT REPRESENTATION INTRODUCTION

The financial regulations which came into effect on 3rd January 2018 require that corporates trading foreign exchange (FX) forward transactions with UK financial institutions will either have to provide a representation that all their FX transactions are excluded from these regulations on the basis they are entered into for the purposes of payment facilitation, or comply with obligations under UK EMIR and MIFID II.

BACKGROUND

FX forwards used for the purposes of payment facilitation (eligibility criteria below) will not be classed as financial instruments. Rather they will be treated in the same way as spot FX, and will therefore not be subject to certain financial regulations (such as MiFID II and UK EMIR).

PAYMENTS FACILITATION ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

FX Forwards will qualify for the means of payment exclusion if they meet the following criteria:

1. The FX forwards are traded for the purpose of facilitating payment for identifiable goods or services (for example, entering into an FX forward in order to pay an upcoming invoice in a foreign currency, or in preparation of an upcoming purchase in a foreign currency, as opposed to trading FX forwards for speculative purposes); and
2. The FX forwards are traded bilaterally, as opposed to on a regulated trading venue. The Financial Conduct Authority has provided some examples of scenarios that would fit within the exclusion. Please see the different examples below.

MEANS OF PAYMENT – EXAMPLES OF CONTRACT TYPES

CONTRACT TYPE	EXEMPT?
Flexible forward where full amount can be settled at any time or defined fixed period up to maturity date	Yes if for means of payment for identifiable goods, services or direct investment
Flexible forward contract where customer draws down early up to maturity	Yes if for means of payment for identifiable goods, services or direct investment
Large forward contract to cover multiple smaller payments for goods	Yes because the whole contract has been identified as for goods, services or direct investment
Forward contract that is "rolled" once	Potentially available if the original contract was for means of payment for identifiable goods, services or direct investment and the delivery/payment date has changed to the new rolled date
Non-deliverable forward	Not exempt because is not delivered

CONSEQUENCES IF TRADING FALLS OUTSIDE OF THE FX MEANS OF PAYMENT EXCLUSION

If you are not eligible for the exclusion, or do not wish for the exclusion to be applied to your FX transactions, then you may be eligible to execute FX transactions through our sister company, Monex Europe Markets Limited ("MEM"). Please contact your designated dealer or sales representative to discuss this further.

FOREIGN EXCHANGE MEANS OF PAYMENT REPRESENTATION

By signing and agreeing to these Terms, you represent for and on behalf of the legal entity named below (the "Named Entity") that:

1. Each and every FX transaction entered into on or after the date below between the Named Entity and MEL is a 'Means of Payment Transaction' pursuant to Article 10(b) Commission Delegated Regulation (EU) 2017/565;
2. "Means of Payment Transaction" means a transaction that is physically settled (otherwise than by reason of a default or other termination event), is entered into in order to facilitate payment for identifiable goods, services or Direct Investments and is not traded on a trading venue;
3. You have read this Schedule 1A and the explanatory information provided by MEL, sought independent advice where necessary, and understand what is meant by a Means of Payment Transaction; and
4. The Named Entity will notify MEL or MEM, as the context may require, of any transaction that does not qualify for the payment exclusion prior to entry into the relevant transaction (e.g. trading is for speculative purposes or for the purposes of general hedging of balance sheet).
